Transform Project Chaos Into Order

DOES YOUR COMPANY NEED SUPPORT MANAGING YOUR PROJECTS?

Project management is not just about ticking boxes. It's about building effective processes for your projects to ensure they are not only done, but done right. Not every business knows what that looks like, that's where Projects Pivot comes in to help.

PROJECTS PIVOT'S OFFERINGS INCLUDE:

- Connect exceptional external project professionals with organizations in need.
- Train and nurture company's internal project team members.
- Bridge the gap between untapped talent and companies seeking efficient project execution.

Seatbelt Sessions

- We assist executives in identifying strategic and priority projects in the company and create an action plan to lessen their involvement in the minutia of project details.
- We help transform a company's conventional long-held ideas and plans into tangible actions, while executives can focus on the bigger picture.
- We create a system that tracks and breaks down project goals and strategies into actionable tangible tasks for the project team to execute for successful results.

Projects Practice ✓

- Projects Practice is a custom Learning Management System for team members assigned to the project, and those in the general project community, to easily learn and confidently manage projects.
- Access thought leaders experientially and connect with a project community through live events.
- Receive mentoring from experienced project experts across various industries.
